

Opposition to PLC due to potential interference to present HF allocations based on my 28+ years in electronic communications.
This system will (in time) kill shortwave hobbies of amateurs and listeners further limiting free access to information and alternate communications in times of distress and disaster.